is a proud member of the South Africa Youth Travel Confederation

SAYTC is a non-profit organization with the following objectives:

1. To market South Africa globally as a preferred youth travel destination, by offering distinctive, world-class backpacker experiences within a unique environment.
2. To work towards the establishment of a professional youth travel industry based upon accreditation and guidelines.
3. To develop South Africa's domestic tourism market within the youth travel industry.
4. To raise awareness and consciousness in South Africa and globally of the importance of South Africa as a youth travel destination.
5. To raise funds and/or obtain funding to achieve the aforementioned objectives.
